OFF THE PAGE

(& into a black box)

Off The Page is a weeklong residency in which stage and film actor Anthony Zerbe works one-on-one with 10 theatre majors on the process of moving character off the page to presentation.

Based on this work, Zerbe creates an adrenaline-fueled public showcase demonstrating exactly what 10 student actors and an over-stretched college or university tech staff can do in a 24 hour turnaround!
